The Funeral Liturgy

The planning of a funeral liturgy brings an important, and sometimes complicated, emotional experience of remembering, celebrating, mourning, and giving of life over to our God. The liturgy at a funeral is a beautiful expression in ways that are spiritual and meaningful. It is our belief that one’s life has meaning and purpose on this earth and in the eternal one. It is our hope that you will find this guide helpful in assisting in this act of love.

Readings

There are three readings in a funeral liturgy: an Old Testament, a New Testament and a Gospel reading. You may select one passage from each group. Other Scripture passages may be used upon approval.

(1)First Reading

Options outside of Easter season: Old Testament

Wisdom 3:1-9 “The souls of the just are in the hand of God...”
Isaiah 25:6a, 7-9 “He will destroy death forever...”
Laminations 3:17-26 “Gone is my glory, and all that I had hoped for from the Lord. ...”

Options during Easter season: New Testament

Acts 10: 34-43 “He is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead...”
Revelation 14:13 “Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord...”
Revelation 20:11- 21:1 “The dead were judged according to their deeds...”
Revelation 21:1-5a, 6b-7 “There shall be no more death...”

(2) Second Reading (all seasons): New Testament

Romans 8:31-35, 37-39 “Nothing can come between us and the love of God...”
2 Corinthians 5: 1, 6-10 “We have a building from God, eternal in heaven...”
Philippians 3: 20-21 “He will change our lowly bodies to conform to his glory...”
Revelation 21:1-7 “He will wipe every tear from their eyes...”
1 John 3:1-2 “That we may be called children of God...”

(3) Gospel Reading (all seasons)

Matthew 5:1-12 “Blessed are they...”
Matthew 25:31-46 “When the Son of Man comes in his glory, ...”
John 6:37-40 “All who believe in the Son will have eternal life...”
John 11:17-27 “I am the Resurrection and the Life...”
John 14:1-6 “There are many rooms in my Father’s house...”

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

“The souls of the just are in the hand of God and no torment shall touch them. They are at peace.”
Wisdom 3: 1-9

Funeral Fees and Luncheon options

Basic Fee $650

Included in this fee is the use of the church facilities, memorial worship aids, staff assistance, and musicians.

An honorarium for the priest is optional, but appreciated.

Please note that a funeral luncheon is not included in the basic fee. An additional administrative fee of $100 will be charged if no funeral home staff will be present.

Luncheon

A funeral reception or luncheon may follow immediately after the liturgy in Kohler Hall. A luncheon hosted by our funeral committee includes three options: (a) turkey, ham, and cheese deli tray, (b) pulled pork sandwiches or (c) shredded beef sandwiches. Buns and condiments are included. Salads and desserts are provided by parishioners. Also included are coffee, lemonade, water, paper products and plastic ware. The cost of this luncheon is $4.50 per person. This cost is added to the funeral home bill.

If no funeral home is used, a check is needed, payable to St. Jude of the Lake.

A second option is to have the luncheon catered by a vendor and served in Kohler Hall. Salads and desserts from parishioners may supplement a catered lunch. A few local vendors who provide delivery service to St. Jude of the Lake are Donatelli’s, Roma’s, and Kowalski’s Market, but you are free to choose any vendor you want. There is no fee for a catered luncheon, even if you request salads and desserts from the church.

Musical Selections

An accompanist and cantor will provide all of the musical leadership for all funerals as part of the basic fee.

Visiting/guest musicians may also participate in funeral liturgies, if approved by Rita Bagley. The family will pay that musician directly to him/her. Our staff musicians will still be present even in the case when you opt to add your own visiting musicians.

Please choose from the following options for your funeral liturgy.

Prelude

Ave Maria
Panis Angelicus

Processional/Gathering Hymn

Praise to the Lord, The Almighty
Amazing Grace
On Eagles Wings
There is a Place
In Paradisium/May Choirs of Angels

Responsorial Psalm

#23: The Lord is My Shepherd
#103: The Lord is Kind and Merciful

Preparation of the Gifts:

Be Not Afraid
Eye Has Not Seen
Make Me A Channel of Your Peace/
Prayer of St. Frances
The Hand of God Shall Hold You
Quietly, Peacefully
Hail Mary, Gentle Woman

Holy Communion:

Here I Am Lord
Rest Now in Me
In the Arms of God
With A Shepherd’s Care
Only You, O God (Melody to ‘Balm in Gilead’)

Sending Forth:

How Great Thou Art
O God You Search Me
May Holy Angels Lead You (Melody to ‘Londonderry Air/O Danny Boy’)
Jesus, Lead the Way
Come, Holy Ghost

Please note:
The Processional and Recessional suggestions are interchangeable.

The Offertory and Communion suggestions are interchangeable

The Mass responses (Gospel Acclamation, Holy Holy, Memorial Acclamation, Amen & Lamb of God) sung at funerals will be the current responses being sung at St Jude at weekend Masses.

Liturgical Roles

Please note that Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, lectors, and gift bearers must be Catholic.

Lectors

We encourage extended family members or friends to lector at the funeral liturgy. You may have up to three lectors (readers) at the liturgy; one for the first reading, one for the second reading, and one for the reading of the petitions (Prayers of the Faithful). You may also have the same person read all three selections. Lectors must be baptized Catholics.

Please note that funeral liturgies are often a difficult experience for immediate family members. A wide variety of emotions are present. When choosing lectors, please be certain that they are comfortable reading in front of an audience during this time.

Please let us know if you have a special petition to add for the Prayers of the Faithful.

Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion

If celebrating a funeral Mass with many practicing Catholic guests, an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion will be provided for you. If you have a trained and commissioned Catholic who wishes to fill this role, please let us know. This individual should be an experienced minister at his/her respective Catholic parish.

Gift Bearers

Two or three adults/children to carry the gifts of bread and wine in the offertory procession.

Pall Bearers: Please inform us if you will be having pall bearers. We will need to know the number of pall bearers and their names.

Funeral Rite

Eulogy/Words of Remembrance

Giving a eulogy at a funeral is strictly optional. The purpose is to provide inspiration and reflection and should be well-thought out and prepared. A loving and effective eulogy of 3-4 minutes can touch the hearts of everyone, but is required to be brief. The funeral Mass is not the best time for a life story.

It is also appropriate to give longer eulogies or remembrances at a wake at the funeral home, at the burial site, after the liturgy is over, or at the reception after Mass. If you choose to read a brief eulogy at the funeral liturgy, it will be done prior to the start of the Mass.

Visitation

The purpose of a visitation is for loved ones to spend some brief moments of silence with the deceased, to console the family, to remember fond times, and to strengthen the bonds of friendship the deceased brought together within the community. Visitations normally occur one hour prior to the funeral liturgy in our Gather Space. Two tables and easels are available for flowers, photo boards, and mementoes a family may wish to display.

Presence at the Burial Site

If you wish Pastor to be present at the burial, please let us know. We will check with his schedule to see if this is possible. Funeral homes may also provide a burial site service. In addition, lay men and women are able to preside at a gravesite service. We are able to offer you those prayers in booklet form.
